

Celebrating Lives of Service

When Catholic Memorial High School opened its doors in 1949, the school was originally dedicated to the twenty-three parishioners of our founding parish, St. Joseph in Waukesha, who died while serving in World War II. While the school dedication has been expanded to include all alumni/alumnae who have died in service to our country, this plaque pays special tribute to these twenty-three men. The bugle and Flanders Field above are part of the school's Coat of Arms to remind us that CMH is a living memorial to these men.
